

PROJECT TEAM

BACKGROUND

Over Thirty Years of Construction Experience | Strong Commercial and Residential Experience | Principal

CAREER EXPERIENCE

January 1999 - Present | Principal and Owner - Structures Design/Build, LLC. Experience includes all aspects of commercial and residential construction. Design, estimating and project management.

January 1993 - January 1999 | Vice President - Experience includes all aspects of residential and commercial construction. Townside Construction Company, Inc. Design, estimating and project management.

November 1989 - January 1993 | Self-Employed - Computer Aided Design and Drafting Service. Design & Drafting service for architects, builders, developers and individual clients. Concentration in residential and light commercial construction. Experience includes CAD programming and estimating.

PRINCIPAL

Mr. Cohen oversees all construction activity and estimating for Structures Design/Build, LLC. His experience encompasses all aspects of commercial and residential construction. His ability to facilitate and coordinate a client's wants and needs with a realistic construction budget are well demonstrated in Structures consistent track record of finishing jobs on schedule and within the budget.

Adam's other areas of interest include: Stone carving (Hand and pneumatic-marble, granite, soapstone, alabaster), Fabrication (Oxy-acetylene, electric arc), Wood (Carving and assemblage), Casting (Plaster, stone, bronze), as well as stone masonry with six years of experience as a mason on various project features including; fireplaces, fountains, waterfalls, patios, walks and planters, and Archeology (Land and underwater excavation)

EDUCATION

Mr. Cohen graduated from the University of Maryland in 1984 with Bachelor of Science degree in Architecture. While attending college, he was employed as a teaching assistant in sculpture courses at the University of Maryland for three years.

AFFILIATIONS

Mr. Cohen also retains several professional memberships, including: National Association of Home Builders, American Institute of Building Design, International Sculpture Center, Tri-State Sculptors, Montgomery County, Maryland Arts Council, and Foundation for the Community of Artists.

Adam J. Cohen